& Wednesday 7th June.

A View from the Rectory

May is the traditional month when spring finally arrives and the hedgerows burst forth in blossom. As a child I loved the hawthorn, also called 'The May' and a song of my youth celebrates Mary, Mother of Christ - 'O Mary, we crown thee with blossom this day, Queen of the Angels and Queen of The May' – Queen of the healing hawthorn, not the month. Early leaves of the tree taste like nutty bread, late berries nourish birds and small mammals, and autumn foragers can also use the haws to make gin, jelly and even ketchup. May - the promise of a new spring, a fertile harvest and plenty in store for the winter.

As we begin this fifth month of 2023 we see the crowning not of a Queen but a King - Charles - the third of his name to rule this land. I found myself thinking of how the word 'may' is used as an invocation and invitation for God's presence or blessing to come upon someone. A common format of blessing in Ireland (in Gaelige of course) begins 'May you be in heaven half an hour before the Devil knows you're dead' and perhaps one of the most familiar of Irish blessings being 'May the road rise to meet you...'

What would be our invocation prayer for the new King of the May as he is crowned not with the Hawthorn of the Healing but the weight of responsibility for his people, God's people, of this and other shores. A solemn undertaking, an awe-filled commitment, a life-long promise before God.
Perhaps this might suffice as a May Blessing for our new monarch:

May the love of Christ equip you for the demands of this calling;

May the peace of Christ dwell in your workplace and your home;

May the humbleness of shepherds mark your service to this nation,

Its diversity of people that call this land their 'home'.

May your reign be marked with peacekeeping, and stewardship of creation,

Proper use of power and defending those in need,

The welcome of the stranger, sanctuary instead of danger,

A place of loving kindness for lost and lonely souls

May your faith in God sustain you and protect you from each sorrow,

Bring you joy and solace, bless your given length of days.

And when you reach the gates eternal, may you find all those who love you,

And the Christ that bids you welcome to the Feast of End of Days.

For Whom the Bell Tolls?

Please don't be alarmed if you hear the bells ring out from the Bell tower of St Michael and All Angels, West Overton in the coming weeks.

Our bells have been silent these past 17 years. But plans are afoot to resurrect regular ringing of the bells soon.

A team of bell-ringers will inspect, condition, test and repair the bells on Saturday 29th April.

If all goes to plan and the 5 bells are safe to ring, the bells may be rung on Coronation weekend, 6th/7th May.

Once we've achieved this, we hope to establish a regular schedule of bell ringing at our Church.

For any further information, please contact Max Dissanayake, Church Warden, St Michael & All Angels: maxdissanayake1@gmail.com.

Update on Building Work

Thank you for your patience during our shop closure due to building work earlier in the year. As some of you know, the shop was damaged when a car rolled from the car park into the front wall of the shop. Fortunately, the next phase of work will not require us to close and we hope that this will take place shortly, and then the front of the shop will be restored to how it was before the accident and the barrier will be removed.

Coronation Opening

The shop will close on the day of the coronation (Saturday 6th May), but will be open on Sunday 7th and Monday 8th May.

Meet the Team

Mary has been volunteering in the shop since last November. She wanted to help in the shop as a way of meeting people and getting to know more people. Mary has a wealth of retail experience having worked at Waitrose for nearly 21 years until her retirement. Mary's favourite thing about working in the shop is meeting people and the friendly team in the shop. She usually works on a Tuesday morning with another volunteer, Lindy. When not helping in the shop, Mary's hobbies are gardening, reading and jigsaw puzzles.

Volunteers Needed

We still need more people to join the team. If you would like to consider volunteering, please contact one of our shop managers, Lyn or Martin, on 01672 539200. Full training will be given along with copious tea and coffee and homemade cakes or biscuits.

Michele Lomas (Chair of Avebury Community Shop)

News from the Tower

Ringling in March and April has been marked by good attendances at practices and at Church. We had 7 ringers for the monthly service at Avebury. In a time honoured tradition most bells are not rung in Holy Week, whilst there are no services to ring for. The one exception is Good Friday where for many years the old tenor bell has been tolled, (this year by Brian Vickers) for the annual Walk of Witness. Tolling a bell is usually done by striking a bell which is fixed in its mounting, rather than swung on a wheel. At Avebury, ringing the old tenor bell (cast in 1719) which is much heavier (weighing nearly a ton) than the bells on wheels for change ringing. It's weight gives a much deeper tone. Since 1980 this bell has been tolled to mark this solemn walk.

It was sad to hear of the death of Gretchen Rawlings. Vanda Rawlings requested that the bells be rung before her mother's funeral. Local ringers were Michele Lomas, Jonathan Stubbs and Brian Vickers, while thanks are due to Andy and Kathryn Miller plus Martin Strange for coming from Calne to help us. We concentrated on trying to ring simple sound patterns well, as we do for service rings. Vanda seemed very pleased with our ringing.

Avebury Cricket Club - Completion of Cricket Nets Rebuild Project

After a long Winter's fund-raising, we are delighted to celebrate the completion of the new cricket net facilities at Avebury Sportsfield. In addition to donations from many dozens of local families whose children play cricket at Avebury, as well as from members of the club itself, the project got over the line thanks to significant funding contributions from The Hills Group Limited, and Crapper & Sons Limited.

Both awards were made available through the Landfill Communities Fund (LCF), which is administered for Hills and for Crapper & Sons by Community First, the Rural Community Council for Wiltshire.

In addition to thanking Community First for their huge support, we'd also like to thank the National Trust and the Farthing family for their patience and support in allowing us access to the works done during a period of exceptionally unhelpful weather. The facility will now be ready for the Summer, with hundreds of Wiltshire children benefiting from the upgrade.

A formal opening evening was held on Friday 21 April, and the nets are now available for use - to book, please contact chairman@aveburycc.org.uk.

We continue to seek new junior and adult members of all ages and abilities to come and take advantage of the new pavilion, clubhouse and nets at Avebury, so please do get in touch either on the email above or (for junior cricketers) gemma@aveburycc.org.uk.

Many thanks!

RUDDIGORE is a surreal comedy meets spooky chiller in this Gilbert and Sullivan operetta performed by White Horse Opera, Wiltshire's Opera Company.

An evening of terrific music, social satire, comedy, pathos and people singing faster than you'd think possible.

- A baronet is doomed to commit a crime everyday or die. In trying to escape his fate he encounters dancing sailors, a bunch of frustrated bridesmaids and a chorus of ghosts.

Prepare to have a laugh, to have your spine tingled and to enjoy the glorious music and song.

A rare chance to see and hear the magnificent, crazy world of Gilbert and Sullivan live and local.

AVEBURY & DISTRICT WI

April is our AGM month so we started with our usual meeting, then went into the AGM with reports on the year from our secretary and from yours truly, before finishing the business part of the meeting and moving on to our speaker.

We welcomed local historian Nick Baxter who gave us a very interesting and entertaining talk on James Townsend who was thought to be the first MP and Lord Mayor of London of African heritage. His Grandmother was the daughter of an African woman and a Dutch soldier, who were married in what is now West Africa. James's grandfather, James Phipps, was from a prominent family of clothiers in Westbury. His mother, Phipps's daughter, married his father clandestinely in the Fleet prison (a debtors prison like the Marshalsea) but it is not thought that his African origins were common knowledge at the time. He married an heiress and was able to enter politics supported by Earl of Shelburne, becoming MP for West Looe and later an alderman of the City of London. He was very active in the politics of the time and was elected Lord Mayor of London in 1772 in controversial circumstances. He later became MP for Calne with the support of Earl of Shelburne. He died in reduced circumstances in 1787.

Our next meeting is Resolutions, not often well supported! We will be theming this meeting around the Coronation of King Charles III which will have taken place a few days before and there will be a fish and chip supper, a royal quiz and cake!

Please let me know if you plan to attend so I can order enough fish and chips

Dying Matters Awareness Week from 8-14 May 2023

Dying Matters Awareness Week takes place this year from 8 to 14 May, led by Hospice UK's Dying Matters campaign. Throughout the week, people across the country will come together to encourage communities to get talking about death, dying, and grief. The theme of Dying Matters Awareness Week 2023 is 'Dying Matters at work'.

At Prospect Hospice, there will be an interactive display in the Heart of the Hospice cafe which everyone is welcome to contribute to. The display will ask different questions on the topic of death and dying, such as 'What do you want people to wear to your funeral?', encouraging us all to think and talk about death, and helping to break the taboo that surrounds it. There will also displays in our charity shops and at Swindon Hub.

Keep an eye on Prospect Hospice's website and social media for news and updates. If you would like to get involved with Prospect Hospice's Dying Matters Awareness Week, please contact larahill@prospect-hospice.net.
